

BOROUGH OF WAYNESBORO

TRANSIENT RETAIL BUSINESS LICENSE

Who Must Have a License?

A Transient Retail Business includes anyone peddling, soliciting, canvassing, or selling goods door-to-door, on public property, or from a temporary fixed location, whether or not they operate a permanent business in the Borough.

Responsibilities of License Holders

- Maintain a valid license and display it when soliciting house to house and when set up in a stationary position.
- Follow location and conduct rules and avoid obstructing public ways.
- Comply with all sections of Chapter 195.
- Respect private property and cease contact when requested.
- Stop house to house solicitation by 7:00 PM.

Penalties for Violations

Violations may result in license suspension or revocation, fines of $600 and costs of prosecution and/or imprisonment for not more than 30 days, and possible prohibition of future licensing.
